Open-Ended Responses

1. In what ways did your instructor make learning possible for you during the Spring 2025 semester?

Comments
He was always willing to answer any questions people had.
Andrew Paul was very helpful in my recitation, very open to questions, and worked through problems that my class struggled with. He was patient and dedicated to making sure we understood the concepts from class.
asked us good questions and was very knowledgeable
He asked for feedback on what we wanted to go over on certain, less structured recitations. He was willing to help with problems similar to that on our homework assignments.
He answered any questions we may have had in class.
it was great.
The instructed allowed us to lead the recitation.
He's a good person and great at math he just wasn't set up for success.
