Open-Ended Responses*1. In what ways did your instructor make learning possible for you during the Spring 2025 semester?*Comments

He offered his help when needed.

I did not have Andrew Paul; I had Elizabeth McLaughlin

He allowed students to ask any necessary questions that they had each recitation and went over whatever the students wanted him to go over.

He answered questions throughout the class period.

2. Which aspects of this course should be kept for future times this course is taught?

Comments

I appreciated that at the beginning of the semester we worked on our own homework problems, and we able to ask questions as they came up.

The homeworks

Everything.

Time to do homework when exams aren't right around the corner.
